Judge M. C. Sauley.

The people everywhere in this section of the State were shocked and grieved last Friday morning when the news was circulated that Judge Mike C. Sauley, had died suddenly at his home in Stanford, Ky. He had apparently been in better health than usual and was able to preside over the Court in his district with less fatigue than during his term of Circuit Judge six years previous. However we learn from those who were intimately associated with him that he was constantly depressed on account of the death of his son, the late Hon. George B. Sauley, who died some months ago. He was passionately devoted to his son George, who was the pride of the fathers heart.

Judge Sauley, at the request of his wife went out in the chicken yard about 8:30 o'clock to feed the chickens and a few minutes later his body was found still warm, he having died of heart disease.

He was sixty eight years of age, was born in Wayne County, entered the Confederate army when but nineteen years of age, and served as First Lieutenant under Gen. John H. Morgan, being captured and imprisoned at Johnson's Island.

The war over, he came to Lincoln county, and soon afterward married Miss Sallie Rowan, of McMinnville, Tenn., whom he had met during the war. She was the daughter of a distinguished lawyer of that State, S. D. Rowan, and a great granddaughter of Gov. Caswell, the first Governor of North Carolina.

Judge Sauley prepared for the bar, his life work, at the Louisville Law school, and quickly forged to the front of his profession. He was an uncompromising Democrat of the old school. He was elected County Judge of Lincoln county in 1870, and served till 1874. In 1880 he was a member of the electoral college from the Eighth district, and supported Gen. Hancock. In 1888 he was appointed by President Grover Cleveland Associate Justice of Supreme Court of Wyoming, and remained there until that Territory became a State. His experiences in the West were somewhat peculiar and often extremely interesting and exciting, and called in to play his resourceful ability as well as splendid legal attainments.

At one time, with revolver in hand, he held in check a mob which had determined to take the law into its own hands and secure a prisoner accused of crime; but Judge Sauley, firm and fearless in defense of justice and right succeeded in averting what would have been a criminal proceeding on the part of the mob.

Returning to his home here in Kentucky, he was soon after elevated to the circuit bench in 1892. He was considered one of the most gifted orators in Kentucky, and his opinions were always lucid and scholarly, and were rarely reversed by the higher courts.

In 1898 Judge Sauley was defeated for Judge of the old Superior Court under the old Constitution, after an exciting convention, by Judge Barbour. He was re-elected to the bench here, however, but was defeated for renomination for a third term by the late Judge W. Con Bell, of Mercer, who was recently killed in a wreck at Seattle. Judge Sauley then made the race for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Fifth Appellate district, but Judge James E. Cantrell won. Judge Bell's term expiring, Judge Sauley again stood for the circuit judgeship, won the Democratic nomination, carrying all the counties of the district over his opponent, and then won in the general election by the largest majority ever given a Democrat in this district. His third term had just begun, and he seemed in fine form to finish it out and fill still further honors. In fact, Judge Sauley was frequently mentioned as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of the State during the early days of this year. He gave up all idea of entering the race, however, when his son, George Sauley, died in March.

Besides his wife, Judge Sauley is survived by six children, out of eight whom he raised. Those living are Mrs. T. S. Webb, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. George L. Penny, of Stanford, and Mrs. S. M. Logan, of Wilmore; H. Rowan Sauley, of Stanford; James M. Sauley, of Grayville, Tenn.; and Midshipman Richard Caswell Sauley, of the United States battleship Kansas.

People from all over the State and possibly the entire bars of every county in this Judicial district assembled in Stanford Sunday afternoon to pay their last tribute to the memory of this noted jurist.

The funeral services were conducted by Elder Joseph Ballou and his body laid to rest in the Stanford Cemetery.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will furnish a room at the new Lancaster hospital.

Elder Pittman will preach at the Christian church, at Hubble, Sunday morning and night.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. C. Bailey are entertaining a handsome little visitor at their home just now. The little lady has been christened Marie Bailey.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends who have been so kind to us during our recent bereavement.

Thos. Conn and family.

Court Day.

Next Monday is County Court Day here and there will very likely be a good crowd in town. We again ask all those who are in arrears to stop in and pay as we are in need of money.

Great Show.

The great stake of $1,000 at the Bluegrass Fair was hotly contested. Of course many were scratched when it was apparent the probable entries would be the highest class of saddle horses. Seven faced the three judges, who were Bales, Wilson and Buckner. The contestants were finally brought to four, and they were placed as follows: Golden Butterfly, first; Kentucky Choice, second; Nazimova, third, and Bourbon Prince fourth. Emerald Bell, Bride of the Mistletoe and Golden Glow were the other entries. It was a memorable event and said to be the feature of the fair.

A Pretty Wedding.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller a very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at ten thirty when Mrs. Mary Miller Frisbie and Mr. H. T. Logan were united in wedlocks holy bond.

Sometime before the appointed hour the handsome home, which was decorated for the occasion, was filled with relatives and friends of the popular couple. Promptly at ten thirty the strains of Mendelssohn wedding march was heard and the bride and bridegroom walked into the parlor and stood in the bay window of the large pretty room where Rev. Henry Faulkner performed the impressive and beautiful ceremony that joined these two hearts and made them man and wife. The charming bride never looked lovelier than on this her wedding day. She was attired in a handsome tailored gown of grey cloth with large black hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridegroom is especially well known in this county, having spent most of his life in Lancaster and long been one of our most prosperous business men. He is now the Mayor of our city and is always at the head of all good enterprises for the public welfare.

The handsome presents displayed in the dining room of the home attested to some extent the popularity of this couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan left immediately for New York for a two weeks trip, after which they will be at home to their many friends at the Hotel Kengarian. The Record extends congratulations and wishes them happiness.

Next Circuit Judge.

It will be necessary for Governor Mondar, to appoint a Judge of this, the Thirteenth Judicial District to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Sauley. Many prominent republican lawyers of this district are mentioned in connection with the appointment. We have no way of knowing who will likely have the Governors favor. Among those most prominently mentioned is Judge Wm. Herndon of this City who is being pushed by his friends. They say he is well qualified to fill the place and that by reason of having been the Republican nominee for this position last year, is entitled from a party standpoint, to the appointment. The friends of the Hon. Lewis L. Walker of this City, who is one of the most prominent Republicans in the State, and is regarded as one of the most learned lawyers at this bar are urging him to ask for the appointment, knowing that he would receive the endorsement of Senator Bradley should he desire the place, however it is not thought that Mr. Walker desires the appointment.

Judge Peter McRoberts of Stanford is very favorably mentioned. Judge McRoberts is eminently qualified for the place, and has a host of friends in every county in the district, who are saying that they will not quit the Governor until he has appointed their man. Others favorably mentioned are Hon. B. T. Quisenberry of Danville, Judge Thos. Hardin and Judge B. F. Roach of Harrodsburg, Ky. The appointee of the Governor will serve until November election 1911 when a special election will be held to fill the vacancy. No special election can be had at the November election 1910 on account of the Congressional election.

Mrs. Robert Elkin will entertain a number of her friends at her beautiful home Thursday evening at a six o'clock dinner in honor of Mrs. Geo. McRoberts, of Covington, and Mrs. Lee Cox, of St. Louis.

Fox Hunters to Meet at Crab Orchard.

The next annual meeting of the National Fox Hunters' Association will be held at Crab Orchard Springs beginning with the derby for young hounds on November 18. The bench show is to be on Monday of the following week. The committee committee composed of Gen. Roger Williams, Steve Walker, S. L. Woodridge, E. B. Parkes and Col. Jack Chinn, met in Lexington on Aug. 11th and made arrangements for the meeting. This means that a large crowd of people will be in Crab Orchard in November and all will have a jolly good time.

Conn.

On last Thursday afternoon at two o'clock the soul of Mrs. Thomas W. Conn took its flight to the land beyond the skies and left the husband and two year old boy, Walter, together with many more relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Her maiden name was Miss Bettie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Smith, of Fort Smith, Ark. She was married to Mr. Conn about four years ago in Tenn. The many friends of the deceased offer heart felt sympathy to the husband and little boy. The funeral was held at the Lancaster Cemetery on last Friday afternoon at three o'clock. Services conducted by Dr. E. H. Pierce.

Who Will Democrats Favor?

The vacancy in the office of Circuit Judge in this district, caused by Judge Sauley's death not only furnishes some good republican lawyer a fat job of $1250 a year until after the November election 1911 but gives the democrats of the district something to think about, for there will be an election next year and there is a nomination for the party to make. It is therefore, but natural that the question should be generally asked: "Who will the democrats nominate for Circuit Judge?" No aspirant has yet made an announcement of his candidacy but we opine that the bee is in the bonnet of a number of gentlemen in the district, any one of whom would fill the responsible place with credit. Friends of the Hon. W. I. Williams of this city are booming him and urging him to make a fight for the nomination. They are saying for him that he is not only well qualified but is good judicial timber. We hear the name of Hon. Charles A. Hardin frequently mentioned upon the street in connection with the nomination. His friends are saying that he is entitled to the nomination on account of a party custom of elevating a Commonwealth attorney to the judges place when he has filled that office satisfactorily. Mr. Hardin has made a popular officer and has many friends all over the district. Hon. Joseph Paxton, of Stanford, is being urged by his host of admiring friends to ask for the nomination. Quite a number of well known democratic lawyers of Danville are being asked to make the race, among them being the Hons. Robert Harding, John W. Rawling, W. J. Price, C. C. Bagby and George Stone. The party has plenty of good material in the district and we will likely have a lively scramble for this desirable plumb.

SCHOOL OPENS

First Monday in September.

School opens two weeks from next Monday, with the same teachers except Prof. Nickel, and Misses Sanford and Magee. Miss Bettie Robinson, of Campbellsville, will take Prof. Nickel's place and she needs no introduction to the patrons of the school as she has taught here before and her services proved very satisfactory. Mrs. Ethel West Darnold will take Miss Sanford's grades and she will be a good one as she is very capable and energetic. She has been attending the Normal School at Richmond and is thoroughly prepared to take charge. Mrs. Belle Burnsides was compelled to give up her place on account of her health so the board has selected Miss Minnie Walsh, of Campbellsville, a music teacher of eleven years experience and a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, to take her place. Every teacher in the school is a good one and few schools can boast of as good a set of teachers and as good a man for Principal as Prof. D. W. Bridges. He has been at the head of our school for several years and they have been in the history of school life in our County. Prof. Bridges is by nature and education, an instructor. He has had years of experience and has led our school thro the most successful years it has ever known. We hope that every good citizen in Garrard County will do everything in their power to help the school this year. While this paper has always been a warm friend to the schools it intends to take a deeper interest in them during the ensuing year. Already we have, as we think, the best Graded school of any county around us and we hope to see it continue to grow and bring more credit to our town.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL CONDUCTED BY DR. I. J. SPENCER, OF LEXINGTON, KY.

The series of meetings at the Christian Church continue with increasing interest. The attendance is large at both night and afternoon services. Dr. Spencer is preaching some very able sermons making many of them very practical. His style, while scholarly is very simple and earnest. The people generally are receiving the sermon with great appreciations and much permanent good will result from this series of meetings. There have been a number of additions to the church and no doubt many others will come to the Lord before the meeting closes.

MISS MABEL MEYERS, OF LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

The above is a good likeness of Miss Meyers, who is leading the music and doing some exceptionally good solo work in the meeting at the Christian Church. Her singing has greatly pleased our people and both old and young count her one of the very best that has served the church in this capacity. Her personality and amiable disposition has made her a host of friends and we highly recommend her as well fitted for her chosen profession.

Haselden Heights Lot Sale a Success.

Mr. Joe S. Haselden, the promoter of the Haselden Heights lot sale made a great success of the sale which was conducted on last Thursday and Friday. Altho Mr. Haselden had practically no experience in the real estate business he showed great ability in the manner in which this proposition was handled. The prospects for the new street are very flattering, and it is certainly a very pretty street. We understand that several new houses will go up at once. Among the persons who it is reported will build are: Mr. Geo. Spoonamore, of Lincoln County; Mrs. J. R. Haselden, Mrs. Theo. Curry, and Mrs. Jas. I. Hamilton. The following is a partial list of the people who purchased lots. Mrs. Theo. Curry, Miss Sallie Lou Myers, Miss Allie Arnold, Miss Rella Arnold, Messrs. George Spoonamore, James W. Smith, H. T. Logan, G. C. Walker, R. E. Henry, W. A. Arnold, Ben Hughes, D. G. Sanders, James I. Hamilton, S. G. Haselden, Arch Kavanaugh, Elmer Miller, J. R. Haselden and Dr. M. K. Denny, Mrs. W. A. Arnold, and Mrs. Mary Hamilton. The house and lot was sold to Mrs. W. A. Arnold at $1500. The total amount received for the entire property was $19,235.00. This addition should make one of the most desirable streets in our city, as several of the best people will build houses for residences, and no house can be built which will cost less than $1200, and shall contain not less than five rooms. The City of Lancaster is growing and the people coming into our town for the benefit of our school have to have a place to live and the lots in Haselden Heights will furnish them. The Street will soon be macadamized which will improve the place wonderfully.

The Mammoth Cave Proposition.

The scheme fathered by Congress man, Thomas, of this district, to have the government take over the Mammoth Cave property and make of it a government reservation is one that will be of interest to our people. This is one of the greatest in the country's natural wonders. Practically it is just as it was when discovered nearly a hundred years ago, except for the cards left there for visitors or the names carved on the walls. It could easily be made one of the beauty spots of the country, and certainly would vie with Yellowstone or other natural wonders now under the control of the government.—Bowling Green Messenger.

LANCASTER HOSPITAL.

Two Successful Operations were Performed Monday.

The Lancaster Hospital has been open to the public since August 1st, and the people of this county and one person from Madison have taken advantage of the opportunity to come here for treatment. Miss Myrtle Doolin was the first patient. She came to the Hospital August 3rd and has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is reported some better at this time and Dr. Burnett hopes to have her well in the next few weeks.

On August 6th little Elvira Speaks was operated on for tonsillitis and is very much improved.

Mrs. J. B. Soper had her eyes operated on and the operation was a success.

Little Wesley Brown Dickerson and Mr. Isaacs, of Madison county, were operated on for appendicitis on last Monday morning. Both are doing nicely and it is thought they will be out in a short time.

The Hospital is furnished now and the Doctors and officers of the corporation invite each and every person who are interested in this work, and especially the ladies, to call when Mrs. Guiley will be glad to show them through.

Miss Katherine Arnold, of Louisville, is the nurse and she is a good one, having had several years experience in the leading hospitals of New York and Louisville.

The success of this institution depends to a great extent upon the people of this town and county, and we trust that all will combine in an effort to make this Hospital the pride of our town, and with the people's help and good wishes we are sure that the doctors will be better able and more willing to exert their best efforts. We have here Doctors who are capable and ambitious men, and who have had the best advantages that this country offers therefore we see no reason why the Hospital should not be a grand success and an honor to our Doctors and our people.

Two Big Days for Colored People.

The colored people of this and adjoining counties had two big days in Lancaster last Friday and Saturday. The occasion of this gathering was the annual Picnic given by Jesse Wearan and Andrew Beazley and was enjoyed immensely by the colored population. About 200 people were present the first day and about 300 the second day. Leavell's Band furnished music and a game of ball between Nicholasville and Lancaster was played each day. Lancaster winning the first game and Nicholasville the last one. They also had several foot races and several other features. Both days passed quietly and there was not a fight or arrest.

Tobacco Meeting.

A large crowd of tobacco growers in the Paint Lick vicinity gathered together at Paint Lick on last Saturday afternoon to discuss the tobacco situation in this county. Messrs J. Wade Walker and Jim Woods were selected as delegates to attend the tobacco sale in Lexington on Tuesday, August 16 and witness the sale making what investigations they may see proper. This committee will report at the next meeting in Paint Lick which is Saturday August 20.

Those interested in the pooling of this year's crop are planning to have a big barbecue and basket dinner at Paint Lick in the near future. A committee consisting of eleven prominent tobacco growers of that section were selected to arrange for this barbecue and they will also report at the next meeting in Paint Lick.
